THE EX FACTOR GUIDE Review: When I first stumbled across Brad Browning's new "Ex Factor Guide" program, I thought it would probably be like all the rest of the 'ex back' products for sale on the internet. Boy, was I wrong!

First of all, "The Ex Factor Guide" is easily the most thorough and comprehensive guide ever written on the subject. It leaves no stones unturned: you may think that your situation is unique, and that any book on the topic can't possibly address the issues you're facing. Well, with "The Ex Factor Guide", that's definitely not the case! Brad has covered every possible scenario and "what if," meaning that by the time you've finished reading the program, your questions are almost certain to have been answered in depth.

Download Here

Not only is it the most comprehensive program, it's also the only guide we're found that actually provides hundreds of real-world examples on how to apply Brad's techniques. Brad's chapter on text messages, for example, offers dozens of canned text messages you can send to your ex that are almost guaranteed to get a response!

Perhaps most importantly, it's very clear that the sneaky psychological techniques recommended by Brad in "The Ex Factor Guide" have been researched and tested by couples in the real world. Brad Browning is a certified relationship counselor, and his decades of experience working with couples to repair broken relationships is clearly evident throughout the book. He offers dozens of unique and ground-breaking ideas that I've never read anywhere else.

Brad claims that over 90% of all relationships can be salvaged, and while that may sound unreasonably high, I actually tend to think he's being completely honest. It's no stretch to imagine that, as he states on his website, anyone who reads and applies his techniques is almost guaranteed to have their ex begging for a second chance.

What about the program itself? The core of the program is a 125 page e-book, professionally written & presented in PDF format. There's also an audio version and a cool video course also included in the price, plus two excellent bonus e-books that cover various topics not addressed in the main e-book.

The best part? It's all available instantly from Brad's website... there's no shipping fees and no waiting around for the mailman, because you can download the entire program within 2 minutes of ordering. That's great news, considering that when you're trying to get your ex back, time is of the essence!

If you're ready to get instant access to all of Brad's sneaky psychological tips and techniques, head over to his website and watch the free video presentation now. Trust me, you won't regret it.

3 Texts To Send Your Ex Girlfriend To Make Her Come Running Back

So... wanting your ex girlfriend back?

One of the easiest ways you can win your ex girlfriend back is by simply using your cell phone and tapping a bunch of buttons.

Sound absurd? Well it isn't... I've coached thousands of men around the world to effectively "Text Their Exes Back"... even if they initially thought that it was impossible to win their ex girlfriends back.

And today, I'm about to give you some tips on how you can force your girlfriend to come running back to you (and no, she'll definitely have absolutely no choice in the matter).

Ready?

This is the first text you can send to get started (but don't send these text messages yet. At the end of the article, I'll tell you exactly when to send these text messages because when you send these messages is just as important as what you send).

Text #1 – The "I'm Ok" Text Message:

— “Hey _____, I just want to let you know that I’m 100% cool with the breakup and I thought that it was a good idea. Hope we can still be friends. Talk soon.” —

This text message is great because it conveys all the right messages. For one, you’re letting her know that you were 100% okay with the breakup (you need to make her think this right now). By saying this, you’re pretty much saying to her that you don’t really need her... and this will subconsciously drive her insane. By posing as “just a friend” right now, you start planting my patented Seduction Seeds that will eventually cause her to start thinking about you in a sexual way again... and win her back. More on this in a bit.

Text #2 – The “No Communication” text.

— “You’re right. It’s best that we shouldn’t talk right now but I would like to be friends eventually.” —

This one is a little advanced and you need to know exactly when to send this text... but again, you’re communicating to her that you don’t really need to talk to her. In essence, you’re saying that you don’t really need her in your reality anymore. By doing this, you’ll send a message that you do want to “move on” ... and you’ll begin tricking her into thinking that she actually lost you!

Text #3 – The “Jealousy” text.

— “I think it was a great idea that we decided to start dating other people. I do just want to be friends right now!” —

By saying this, you’re telling her that you’re actually date other people right now... which will in turn make her jealous. This is a good thing. By saying this, you’re sub-communicating to her that you’re actually wanted by other women. Remember, women are attracted to men that are wanted by other women, so by saying that you're dating around already, you're pretty much saying that "it's your loss, missy!"

Remember, you can't just simply send these texts to her and expect good results... you need to have a plan of attack and send these messages right when she's most likely to take them seriously... only then will she begin to feel attraction for you and induce a "fear of loss" within her.

In this free presentation (<== REPLACE WITH AFFILIATE LINK!), I'll show you exactly what you can do to make your ex girlfriend want you again. Whether you just want a night of hot sex, or you actually want to get back with your girlfriend (and keep her), just watch the short video and I'll tell you how you can get your ex girlfriend back into your arms!

But you better hurry up because this video won't be online forever. In fact, women around the world are trying desperately to shut me down because they think the tactics that I use on women are so controversial (in other words, my techniques for winning your ex girlfriend back are just so good that women think that they're unfair).

Why You Lost Your Girlfriend (And How You Can Get Her Back)

Yeah, the feeling of getting dumped sucks. There's no question about that. Sometimes, you can go crazy thinking about all the things that went wrong in your relationship.

But the bottom of the line is, the reason why your relationship ended is because your girlfriend's lost attraction for you. No, it wasn't because you left your dirty laundry around the house or that it's "her, not you...", it's because the foundation of her attraction for you faded, and it's your fault. Though there are ways you can "re-attract" your girlfriend (and I'll get to that in a second), you have to first understand why she dumped you. Only then will you know how you can get her back.

This is what I like to call The Six Deadly Relationship Sins. Now, I'm not saying that you committed all of these mistakes, but chances are you probably exhibited at least one of these characteristics that pretty much forced your girlfriend to leave you (even if she's claimed that she left you for another reason).

The first Deadly Sin is a common problem that over half of men have in their relationships – and that's being way too controlling. Women are repelled by men that put unrealistic restraints on their lives. Though asserting your dominance in a relationship is important, you have to know exactly when "enough is enough". If you don't, then don't be surprised that your girlfriend or wife left you.

The second Deadly Sin is a bit of a weird one, but always seeking external validity from your girlfriend is a huge attraction-breaker. What does that mean? It means that you constantly seek out your girlfriend's approval. Asking questions like, "Do you love me? Do think I'm fit enough? Is my penis big enough for you? Did you have a good time?" repel women. It's like saying to her that you aren't confident enough or good enough... and this reeks of insecurity.

The third Deadly Sin is being jealous all the time. Were you jealous that she was flirting with other guys? Maybe she was hanging out with a guy friend that you felt a little suspicious about... Well, if you did exhibit this emotion, then again, don't be surprised that your girlfriend lost some attraction for you. Jealousy is the ultimate form of insecurity.

So now that you know only some of the relationship killers, how do you go about “re-attracting” your girlfriend?

Well, it starts with employing some of my most powerful psychological techniques. Yes, even if things seem completely hopeless right now, you can get her back if you know what you’re doing.

Let me first introduce myself. My name is Brad Browning and I’m known as the “Relationship Geek.” I’ve been helping thousands of men across the globe win back their ex-girlfriends. My success rate is over 90%.

Even if you think your relationship with your ex girlfriend is completely torn, I can bet you there is a way to make her fall hopelessly in love with you again (or at least make her want to sleep with you again).

You see, what a lot of men do when they get dumped is start acting like complete wussies. They’ll start asking for forgiveness and start begging for second chances. If you’re guilty of one of these mistakes, then you better start listening to my advice... because chances are you’re doing something right now that is pushing your girlfriend further and further away into the arms of another man.

So do yourself a favor and check out my free video. In it, I’ll tell you exactly how you can get your ex girlfriend back as soon as possible... and I’ll go over some other Deadly Sins as well.

But you better check out this video quickly because I have extreme feminists groups protesting me to take it down. These women think the psychological techniques I use in this video are too manipulative (in other words, they work too well).

Men are repelled by women that put unrealistic restraints on their lives. Though asserting your dominance in a relationship is important, you have to know exactly when “enough is enough”. If you don’t, then don’t be surprised that your boyfriend or husband left you.

The second Deadly Sin is a bit of a weird one, but always seeking external validity from your boyfriend is a huge attraction-breaker. What does that mean? It means that you constantly seek out your boyfriend’s approval. Asking questions like, “Do you love me? Do I look fat in this dress? Did you have a good time?” repel women. It’s like saying to him that you aren’t confident enough or good enough... and this reeks of insecurity.
